Itinerary: Cala Millor - Sa Coma -S'Illot – Cala Morlanda – Porto Cristo - Camí de sa Marineta – Son Carrió - Camí dels Molins – Camí de Cas Canonge – Camí de Na Gatera – Sa Coma – Cala Millor

From the starting point head towards Sa Coma, following the signs along Avinguda Baladres and Avinguda Savines. Continue along the latter avenue until you come to a stop sign in S'Illot.

Turning to the left you come to the Talayotic Settlement of S'Illot, one of the most important archaeological sites on the island. It is open to the public and the tour includes the Visitor Centre which helps you to understand the site.

Return to Avinguda Savines, cross the Can Amer torrent that divides the municipalities of Manacor and Sant Llorenç and continue in the direction of Cala Morlanda – Porto Cristo. From the former, a small holiday resort, continue along the road in the direction of Porto Cristo until you come to the cycle lane that runs from the main road (PMV-4023) to the town.

Porto Cristo is famous for its natural harbour and the caves you can visit 360 days a year. Go down to the port to enjoy the wonderful views.

To rejoin the itinerary, head out of the town in the direction of Manaco until you come to the roundabout on the Porto Cristo - Manacor road

From there cycle with care along the road and when you come to the next roundabout turn right onto Camí de Sa Marineta. This track is about 6 kilometres long and, after crossing the Sa Gruta track, it takes you to the Son Carrió - Manacor road (PMV-4021) At this crossroads turn to the right and after a little more than a kilometre you come to Son Carrió.

This inland Mallorcan town is a good place to take a break. You can visit the church and enjoy some of the traditional products of the area, in cluding coques (pastries) topped with apricots, vegetables or trampó (a kind of Mallorcan salad). After a rest, you can continue the route back to Cala

Head out of the town and after about 500 metres take the track to the left signposted as Camí dels Molins. After going up and down a few hills and about 3 kilometres turn right onto Camí de Cas Canonge. Here you have to cross the Sa Torre Nova road that goes to Cala Millor and continue on Camí de Na Gatera, to the right after 200 metres. This track is not paved and you have to cycle with care. Without leaving it you come to the Porto Cristo - Son Servera road, which you cross and then continue along the track to the right alongside some apartments. This track connects to Carrer Alzina and Avinguda Savines in Sa Coma. From there you can return to the starting point in Cala Millor by following the signs in the town.

Itinerary: Cala Millor - Sa Coma -S'Illot – Son Carrió – Cala Millor

From the starting point follow the signs that lead you to the resort of Sa Coma. At Avinguda de Ses Palmeres turn to the left and, almost straight after, to the right along Avinguda de ses Savines until you come to the stop sign, already in the built - up area of S'Illot. Turning to the left you come to the Talayotic Settlement of S'Illot, one of the most important archaeological sites on the island. It is open to the public and its Visitor Centre will help you understand the site.

To return to the itinerary, after the stop sign turn right to reach the roundabout on the Son Servera -Porto Cristo road (PMV-4023) and continue in the direction of Son Car rió (PMV-4021). This is a road with a lot of twists and turns and some steep hills. The countryside here is one of dryland farming -almond groves and fig and carob trees- and, n the background, the town of Son Carrió, which you find yourself entering before you know it.

This is a good time to have a rest and visit the church of Sant Miguel. We also recommend the Mallorcan pastry specialities made by the town's bakers: coques, ensaïmades, panades and cocarrois.

From Son Carrió the itinerary continues towards the coast along Camí de Sa Torre Nova. This is a very busy road, so please cycle with care.

When you reach the roundabout you

Itinerary: Cala Millor – Son Carrió (via Sa Torre Nova) - Sant Llorenç -Volta per Infern – Sant Llorenc – Son Carrió (via Camí de Son Vives and Camí de Ses Talaies) - Cala Millor

From the starting point head towards Son Carrió on the Sa Torre Nova road, which you will find on the way out of Cala Millor on the left, in the direction of Porto Cristo.

From Son Carrió continue along the road in the direction of Sant Llorenç (PMV-4021) and then turn right onto Camí de Son Berga, which will take you to the road that goes to Sant Llorenç (PMV–4022). Enter the town going under the railway bridge and, after passing a stop sign, turn to the left in the direction of Manacor, Take the main street through the town in the direction of Artà and, after 400 metres, on the left you come to the road that takes you to the Volta per Infern, which is signposted as Cami de Calicant PMV-3323.

Without detouring from main route. pass by the Calicant crossroads and continue north until you link up with the Camí de Sos Ferrers, after a section of road in poor condition.

You pass by the signs indicating the former agricultural estates and agro - tourism establishments: Ses Bit-les,

Sa Talaia, Es Pou, Sa Carbonera, At Km 25.8 you come to another crossroads (PMV-2034). Take the road to the right, Camí de Ses Planes i Sa Be gura. Follow it to Sant Llorenç without making any detours.

Once in the town you have to take the Artà road and after 400 metres turn onto the narrow road on the right that takes you to Carrer del Pou. Turn left onto the Camí de Son Vives, the estate you will see on the right on a small hill. Pass it by and at the next crossroads, with a "give way" sign at Km 37 on the route, turn to the right until you reach the Son Servera to Sant Llorenç road (PM-403). Cross this busy main road with great care and take the track right in front of you, the Camí de Ses Talaies. This asphalted track runs between cul tivated fields and the estate of the same name and, after making some zigzags, arrives at Son Carrió. From here just follow the Sa Torre Nova road, as you did at the beginning of the itinerary, and it will take you back to Cala Millor.

Via Verda Manacor-Artà

Distance: 28-53 km

Difficulty: Low

Itinerary: Manacor - Sant Llorenç -Son Carrió - Son Servera – Artà

The Green Way (Via Verda) is a path for walkers and cyclists. It follows the route of the old railway line between Manacor and Artà, passing through the towns of Sant Llorenç des Cardassar, Son Carrió and Son Servera.

The proximity of Cala Millor, as well as Sa Coma and Cala Bona, make it a good choice for visiting these inland towns and an excellent way to enjoy the countryside away from the coast.

From Cala Millor, which is midway along the route, the Green Way can be accessed at various points:

- From the Cala Millor cycle lane in the direction of Son Servera, at the beginning of the built-up area.
- From the PM-4023 Porto Cristo Son Servera road: • From the Cala Millor - Son Carrió road, turning off at the rounda-
